ORDER

Pursuant to Rule 5(f)(1) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, as added by the Due Process Protections Act, Pub. L. No. 116-182, 134 Stat. 894 (21 Oct. 2020), the court hereby confirms that in this case the government is subject to the disclosure obligation of the prosecution recognized in Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963) and its progeny. Brady provides that “the suppression by the prosecution of evidence favorable to an accused upon request violates due process where the evidence is material either to guilt or to punishment, irrespective of the good faith or bad faith of the prosecution.” Id. at 87. Failure by the government to comply in this case with its disclosure obligation under Brady and its progeny, in violation of this order or otherwise, can result in reversal of a conviction, vacation of a sentence, and imposition of sanctions against the individuals responsible for the violation, among other consequences.

SO ORDERED, this 5th day of May, 2021.

James E. Gates
United States Magistrate Judge
